

Workshop Module

Local Legislation and SCR 1325 - Building the capacity of local actors to implement SCR 1325 and 1820 National Action Plan
June 16-18, 2011; Pokhara, Nepal

Time	Session	Methodology	Outputs / Outcomes	Resource Person
Day 1 - June 16, 2011
8:30-9	Arrival and registration of participants
9-9:10	Welcome Remarks		Participants are welcomed and given guidelines on the modalities of the workshop including logistical arrangements	Bandana Rana, President Saathi-Nepal
9:10-9:30	Background and Rationale of the workshop; Global developments on women and peace and security policy advocacy and programming	Power point	Participants gain understanding of the Security Council Resolutions and other international laws on women and peace and security and how they have reinforced the normative standards for protection of women's rights during and after conflict; and for addressing women's specific needs in the recovery and peacebuilding period	Mavic Cabrera-Balleza, International Coordinator GNWP-ICAN
9:30-9:45	Introduction, Agenda, Ground Rules, Appoint Eyes & Ears, Rapporteur, Expectation setting; Ground Rules and Presentation of the program	Power point, brainstorming	Workshop objectives and expected results are set	Bandana Rana, President Saathi-Nepal
9:45-10:45	The role of local authorities, community-based organizations and other local actors in policy implementation; Q & A	Power point; interactive discussion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants gain understanding of local governance structures Participants become aware of different entry points in policy implementation 	Ganga Datta Awasthi, Former Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Local Development
10:45-11:00	Tea Break
11-11:45	Small Group Discussions			All Participants
11:45-12:30	Group Presentations	Flip board		Rapporteurs
12:30-13	Q & A

13-14	Lunch
14-14:45	Presentation on UNSCRs 1325 and 1820		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants gain understanding of the provisions of 1325 and 1820 Participants become aware the mutual enhancement of the two resolutions 	Bandana Rana, President Saathi-Nepal
14:45-15:30	Fishbowl exercise		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants share their understanding of 1325 and 1820 in an interactive format
15:30-15:45	Tea Break
15:45-17	Presentation on NAP and Q & A		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants gain knowledge of the existence and content of the NAP Participants become aware of the process of drafting the NAP and next steps in terms of implementation Participants understand their role in implementation 	Dal Bahadur, KC Under Secretary of the Ministry of Peace and Reconstruction
17-17:15	Synthesis of day's discussion			Bandana Rana, President Saathi-Nepal
Day 2 - June 17, 2011
9-9:30	Participants arrive and review of previous day; recap, Eyes and Ears' reports
9:30-11	Linkage between peace and security and development and good governance; Q & A		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants gain insight of Nepal's peace and security situation Participants gain understanding of the concept of good governance and its importance to sustainable peace and development Participants gain insight of the impact of the conflict on the development of local communities and particularly its impact on women 	Ganga Datta Awasthi, Former Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Local Development
11-11:15	Tea Break
11:15-12:15	Presentation of the process of developing District Development Plans		Participants become familiar with the process of developing District Development Plans; including the different levels of planning (district, village); actors responsible; time frames; budgeting; and monitoring processes	Ganga Datta Awasthi, Former Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Local Development

12:15-13	Identify relevant provisions of 1325 in the context of District Plans Q & A		Participants gain knowledge of how to identify provisions of SCR 1325 that could be integrated in specific sections of the District Plans	Ganga Datta Awasthi, Former Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Local Development
13-14	Lunch
14-14:45	Overview of District Planning Framework		Participants become aware of how the NAP fits into the District Development Framework	Kiran Prasad Dhungel, Consultant to Nepal's SCR 1325 and 1820 National Action Plan
14:45-17	Identifying sectoral activities and commitments		Participants commit to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify concrete actions to promote Resolutions 1325 and 1820 and the Nepal NAP Identify provisions of the NAP that fall under local authorities' mandate; Identify related activities in the district/municipality; Identify existing programs that will serve as platforms to the activities and commitments to the NAP; Identify potential partner agencies and civil society organizations 	All resource persons

Day 3 - June 18, 2011

9:30-10:30	Plenary and Q & A		Clarify pending issues in the discussions
10:30-11	Tea break and filling out of evaluation forms
11-11:30	Synthesis of group presentations		Sharing of sectoral activities and commitments identified	Assigned rapporteurs
11:30-11:45	Sharing from foreign participants		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants learn from the Afghan and Sri Lankan experience and are able to apply these to the context of Nepal Participants understand 1325 and 1820 as tools to prevent sexual violence and promote women's participation 	Representatives from the Afghan Women's Network and the Association for War Affected Women
11:45-12:15	Group work commitments		Participants identify and choose their priority commitments
12:15-12:45	Plenary		Assigned rapporteurs present their group work	Assigned rapporteurs

12-45-13	Wrap-up		Discussion of next steps and follow up initiatives	Bandana Rana, President Saathi-Nepal Mavic Cabrera-Balleza, International Coordinator - ICAN- GNWP
13-14	Lunch

The Global Network of Women Peacebuilders-International Civil society Action Network and its partners thank the Government of Canada for supporting this project

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada